Vineyard and Winery • Napa, California

2006 Mutti's Pride

This wine was named after Elisabeth, winemaker Gerhard Reisacher's mother, who visits from Austria every harvest and is proud to watch her son carry on the family's winemaking tradition. Friends know Elisabeth as Mutti (pronounced moo· tee), which is Austrian for mom.

Vineyard: One grower in central Rutherford, one on First Avenue, Napa

Appellation: Napa Valley

Composition: CS 94%, ML 3%, PS 3%

Case Production: 725 cases

Harvested: October 14+25, 2006

Bottled: August 29, 2008

Release Date: Summer 2011

Tasting Notes: The nose offers aromas of plum and dark cherry accompanied by licorice, chocolate, cola, vanilla, and smoked ham. The mouth is youthful, well-centered, chewy, with clove spices throughout and a long and elegant finish.
